Tea Leaf Reading (and afternoon tea)

Sun. May 7, 2023 1pm 280 South Middlebush Rd, Somerset

Please join us for a special and interesting afternoon. You will be served a full traditional afternoon tea with light fare, and you will have the opportunity to have your tea leaves read by Bernadette Fox.

Tea Leaf Readings are an ancient method of divination originating with Buddhist Monks. They sought enlightenment through meditation with the images in their tea cup. As tea began to spread from Asia into Europe, tea leaf readings were carried by traveling caravans and merchants and often adopted by Gypsies who have been famous for fortune telling. Merchants continued to bring tea farther into Western Europe and eventually up to the British Isles. Having your tea leaves read became very popular during Victorian times. After dining, the gentlemen would retire to the study or game room for brandy and cigars and the ladies would retire to the parlor for tea. Tea Leaf Reading became a fun parlor game more than true divination.

Bernadette Fox has been called “the compassionate medium” as her readings are heartfelt, genuine and accurate. She cares deeply about her work as an evidential medium, psychic and healer. She enjoys bringing healing and guidance through her readings and is devoted to maintaining the highest standard of quality and integrity with complete confidentiality throughout her work.

This event will be held on Sunday, May 7, 2023 from 1-5 pm at the historic Van Liew-Suydam House, 280 South Middlebush Road, Franklin Township, NJ. The fee for attending is $47 for members and $50 for non-members.
